EXTERNAL POSTING
VACANCY ANNOUNCEMENT

Job Title: Member Benefits Specialist
Classification: Professional B, FSO Bargaining Unit
Supervisor: Director of Organizing and Field Services
Location: North Florida

Position Summary: The Florida Education Association seeks candidates to join the Department of Organizing and Field Services (OFS) as a Member Benefits Specialist. This position assists the OFS Director and management team through creating and implementing membership benefit campaigns and organizing initiatives. This position directly interacts with FEA members to educate them on how to best maximize all available member benefits. Extensive travel across the state is required.

Specific Responsibilities:

1. Assist OFS professional and management staff in the development and implementation of marketing plans for existing member benefits.
2. Under the direction of OFS management, advise members regarding all available member benefits including but not limited to those available from FEA, AFT, NEA, and AFL-CIO.
3. Assist OFS professional and management staff with membership training including assistance with informational flyers and mailings as it relates to available member benefits.
4. Assist OFS staff in using member benefits in the planning and implementation of membership development and organizing initiatives.
5. Provide research assistance regarding member benefits to professional and management staff as requested.
6. Regularly travel across the state to educate FEA members regarding all available benefits from FEA, AFT, NEA, and AFL-CIO to large and small member groups.
7. Perform other duties as assigned by the OFS Director.
8. Perform other duties as assigned.

General Responsibilities:

1. Acknowledge and support the advancement of FEA’s vision, mission, and strategic goals.
2. Identify, contribute to, and support new opportunities to advance FEA’s vision, mission, and strategic goals.
3. Perform all work assignments in a manner that effectively and efficiently utilizes FEA resources.
4. Contribute to and support the development and implementation of departmental and interdepartmental programs and services.
5. Perform all duties, responsibilities, and assignments within the guidelines outlined in the FSO/FEA Collective Bargaining Agreement and in accordance with FEA Policies and Procedures.
Compensation & Benefits: The salary for this position is determined by the negotiated agreement between the Florida Education Association and the Florida Staff Organization based on credited experience. FEA provides medical, dental, vision, life, and long-term-disability insurance to its employees with no employee premiums. Additionally, FEA provides employer-paid retirement options, vacation leave, sick leave, and paid holidays.

How to Apply: Interested candidates should submit a cover letter and resume via email to feahr@floridaea.org. Candidates will be reviewed on a rolling basis. Candidates that apply on or before April 20, 2020 will receive preferential treatment.
